

Let Worldly Minds the World Pursue

2 Corinthians 5:17

John Newton, 1779
Our Own Hymn-Book #654

HMS, 2010
BLADES C.M.

1. Let world-ly mindsthe world pur- sue, It has no charmsfor
2. As by the light of open - ing day The starsare all con -
3. Now, Lord, I would be Thine a - lone, And whol-ly live to
4. Let world-ly mindsthe world pur- sue, It has no charmsfor

me; Once I ad - mired its tri - fles too, But ceal'd; So earth - ly pleas - ures fade a - way, When Thee; But may I hope that Thou wilt own A me; Once I ad - mired its tri - fles too, But grace has set me free. Its pleas - ures now no long - er Je - sus is re - veal'd. Crea - tures no more di - vide my worth - less worm like me? Yes! though of sin - ners I'm the grace has set me free. Its pleas - ures now no long - er

please, No more con - tent af - ford; Far from my choice, I bid them all de - part; His name, and worst, I can - not doubt Thy will For if Thou
please, No more con - tent af - ford; Far from my

GMAJ⁹ Asus⁴ B min A GMAJ⁹

heart be joys like these, Now I have seen the love, and gra - cious voice, Have fix'd my rov - ing hadst not loved me first, I had re - fused Thee
 heart be joys like these, Now I have seen the

DMAJ⁹ D⁷ GMAJ⁹ D

Lord, now I have seen the Lord.
 heart, have fix'd my rov - ing heart.
 still, I had re - fused Thee still.
 Lord, now I have seen the Lord.