

First Baptist Church of Clinton, Louisiana
 1689 Second London Baptist Confession
 “Chapter 5, Of Divine Providence, Part 3”
 “Chapter 6, Of the Fall of Man, of Sin, and of the Punishment Thereof”
 June 25, 2017

“Chapter 5, Of Divine Providence, Part 3”

- Paragraph 5. God’s Ways with His People.
 - God sometimes leaves His people to themselves and to their sins.
 - Three Reasons God leaves us in our sins, according to the confession.
 - First, chastisement and humbling for former sins.
 - Second, to keep us dependent upon Him.
 - Third, for the mortification of our sins.
- Paragraph 6. God’s Ways with His Enemies.
 - First, their identities.
 - Second, God also withholds from them grace.
 - Third, God withdraws gifts from them.
 - Fourth, God gives them over to their lusts.
- Paragraph 7. The Church. See Ephesians 3:1-13.
- Some Practical Implications of Divine Providence.
 - First, it frees us from _____.
 - Second, it frees us from complaining and _____.
 - Third, it frees us from _____.
 - Fourth, it frees us from _____.
 - Fifth, it frees us from _____.

“Chapter 6, Of the Fall of Man, of Sin, and of the Punishment Thereof”

- Paragraph 1. The Adamic Covenant.
 - Three things about this paragraph.
 - First, man was created upright.

- Second, there was a historical act.
 -
 - Third, it all happens by the permission of God.
- Paragraph 2. The Sinfulness of Sin. Romans 3:10-19.

- Paragraph 3. The Transmission of Sin. Romans 5:12-21.

- Paragraph 4. Total Inability. Romans 8:7; Colossians 1:21.

- Paragraph 5. Sin in the Believer. Romans 7:18-25.

- What are some implications of this doctrine of sin?
 - Are there political implications?

 - What about implications in the Christian's home?

 - What about implications in the church?

 - Implications for evangelism?

 - Implications in our personal or individual walk with Christ?